SPH Welcomes New Service Area Board Members

Homer, Alaska, Friday, October 19, 2007: The South Peninsula Hospital's Service Area Board (SAB) seated six new members and elected officers at their Thursday October 18 meeting.

The new members and their elected positions are Judith Lund, Vice President; Sue Baxter, Secretary; Roberta Highland, Treasurer; Nancy Branch, member; and Annette Koth, member. John Fenske, who has been serving on the board since September, was elected chair and was sworn in for a new term at the meeting. Newly elected Kenai Peninsula Borough assembly member, Bill Smith, resigned his seat on the SAB, which will leave two seats remaining open.

The SPH Operating Board and Administration look forward to the contributions of all the new members and the assets they bring to the service area.
