Growing Family Wins SPH Grand Opening Drawing for $1,000

Homer, Alaska, Friday, March 07, 2008: Pete Kalugin of Anchor Point was the winner of the $1,000 gift certificate for hospital service at the recent Grand Opening of South Peninsula Hospital's new east wing. The prize money was donated by the South Peninsula Hospital Foundation, an independent, non-profit organization supporting the hospital and healthcare education in the community.

The gift was perfect timing as the family was able to use the credit on Wednesday, March 5 to help pay for the birth of their son.

Pictured below from left to right are: Noah, Cassandra, Krystyana, and Pete Kalugin.
