SPH Revamps Billing Statements

Homer, Alaska, Friday, September 07, 2007: South Peninsula Hospital has changed its billing system. Patients will now be sent "Guarantor Statements" which combine all accounts of the same guarantor, or person responsible for paying the bill. This will reduce the amount of mail received by any given household. For instance, if a patient has six visits to the hospital over a period of time, they will now only receive one monthly statement, as opposed to the six previously sent. Guarantor statements will also combine accounts of dependents with their parents or guardians, thus further reducing the amount of paperwork.
