SPH Hires New Chief Financial Officer

Homer, Alaska, Wednesday, March 19, 2008: South Peninsula Hospital welcomes MaLisa Mudgett as its new Chief Financial Officer and Assistant Administrator. Mudgett brings over 17 years of hospital finance experience to the job, serving recently as the Chief Financial Officer at Lake Chelan Community Hospital in Chelan, Washington for the last seven years.

She has extensive experience with the hospital's computer system as well as an understanding of the financial processes needed to run a Critical Access Hospital, a federal designation which will provide SPH with a higher Medicare reimbursement rate. The hospital applied for the designation last year and expects it to be effective later this spring.

Mudgett joins hospital administrator, Bob Letson, who began work earlier this month, and brings with her husband Eric and daughter Brittany.
